

Example Format
Analysis Paper

Student Name
Senior Project Analysis
Connection Coach
Date Submitted

Double - spaced
(DS)

Introduction should include description of project, reason for choosing project and how this project meets the learning stretch requirement.

Body should include a narrative of the process. Discussing highlights, obstacles, mentor relationship and improvements that could have been made. These areas should be developed just enough to clarify the experience.

Body should be completed in no less than one page.
(DS)

Conclusion should speculate about the importance of the learning experience and its potential impact on learning. It should also discuss whether the learning experience met expectations.

This paper should flow from start to finish. All good writing includes an introduction, body and conclusion. (No subtitling is needed) Analysis should follow MLA form which has a one inch margin for left and right, and starts with student's name one inch from the top of the paper. The paper needs to be typed DS and students should indent at all paragraphs.